RE: United States v. Jose Irizarry
23 Cr. 60 (JMF)

Application GRANTED. Sentencing is hereby
ADJOURNED to March 15, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate Doc. #75.

SO ORDERED.

February 14, 2024

Dear Judge Furman,

I write with respect to the sentencing proceeding in the above-captioned case, which is presently scheduled for tomorrow, February 15, 2024, at 10:30 a.m. Consistent with the Court's remark on the docket earlier today, I respectfully request an adjournment of sentencing to March 8<sup>1</sup> or March 15, 2024, to allow for Mr. Irizarry to complete his in-patient detoxification in advance of sentencing. The government does not object to this request. I have proposed Friday dates in order to better facilitate Mr. Irizarry's wife's presence at sentencing, as she has represented to me that it is much more feasible for her to arrange for childcare on a Friday. Of course, we stand ready to comply with any directive from the Court that makes the most sense for the Court's calendar.

Respectfully Submitted,

Andrew John Dalack, Esq.

Cc: Government Counsel

<sup>1</sup> On March 8, 2024, government counsel has sentencing hearings in another case scheduled for 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 p.m.
